Important Parent Survey

Please consider taking a couple minutes to complete our brief parent survey in the lobby this week. An online version is also available at <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/parksreparent>. Your feedback is important to us as we gauge the effectiveness of Irving Day Camp and make plans for the future. Survey results are also used by city officials to help make important program funding decisions.

Wednesday, August 7

Wednesday marks the biggest day of the summer! Today we compete in the citywide tournament between recreation centers better known as Play Day! We will leave promptly at 9:00 a.m. and may not return until 4:00 p.m. Campers from Irving Day Camp 5-7 will have a chance to participate in a wide variety of both competitive and "just for fun" games with new friends and familiar faces. Additionally, they'll have a chance to go swimming at Woods Pool so make sure your camper has their swimsuit, sunscreen, towel, and anything else they might need to have fun in the sun! Irving hopes to take home the coveted Golden Rock this year which we won last year so bring your game faces and sportsmanship, because today is definitely going to be the best day yet!

Thursday, August 8

Thursday we will take our fourth field trip to the Haymarket Children's Theatre to see a brand new original show, "Super Academy." We will leave Irving at 12:30 p.m. following lunch and hangout at the Bennett Martin Library for a little bit before going to see "Super Academy" at 2:00 p.m. The show will last an hour and one half so we will not return until 4:00 p.m.

Friday, August 9 – Last Day of Camp!

Friday marks the final day of summer day camp. The leaders have come up with many ideas through the weeks, but we're allowing the campers to decide what we do this final day. From arts and crafts to active and non-active games this will be up to the campers to make this a day to remember forever. This will also mark our last trip to the pool. We'll go down to Irvingdale Swimming Pool at 11:30 a.m. and return to Irving around 1:00 p.m. Please make sure to pack your swimsuits, towels, and sunscreen for today.
